MARKET SEGMENTS

Rack

Spot

Market Challenge

Smaller propane distributors need cost-effective rack price discovery to identify suppliers posting the lowest prices in their markets. They also need to monitor the spot market to learn what their suppliers are paying for product so they'll have the knowledge to negotiate more favorable deals.

How We Help

Delivered by email every business morning, the OPIS Propane Daily Report provides a snapshot of what suppliers are paying for spot propane in key market hubs, and posting at the rack. This quick-read report also includes the latest spot market news needed to monitor supply and demand fluctuations.

Benefits

- Know where the market is trending as you set new contracts
- Compare rack prices to what suppliers are paying at the spot level
- Find the most competitive supplier at a glance
- Search for propane outside your pre-buy contracts
- Learn infrastructure problems that can delay your supply
- Monitor demand, stocks, prices and supply levels
