

Integrated coverage from metallurgical coal to iron ore, ferrous scrap and steel

The Steel Raw Materials coverage provides daily news content and strategic monthly analysis and forecasts of metallurgical coal, iron ore, ferrous scrap and ferro-alloys and their associated ores, such as manganese oxide. Our coverage allows coal and iron ore producers, steelmakers, traders, infrastructure companies, governments and industry participants to stay informed about the most critical information affecting steel raw materials markets.

Our markets module provides daily price reporting with a focus on market-moving news, supported by strong fundamental data.

Our research module has strategic insight and long-term outlooks based on our unique and proprietary databases.

Key Deliverables: Markets

Newswires: News and Alerts delivered in real-time, directly to your inbox 24/7. Conceived to support trading decisions, our news and analysis provide greater transparency for markets.

Market Round-Up: Scheduled Summary of news, prices, or data for key markets

- Steel Raw Materials Daily Round-Up (new)
- Iron Ore Weekly & Monthly Round-Up (new)
- Ferrous Scrap and Steel Weekly Round-Up (new)
- China Portside Iron Ore Market Weekly Round-Up (new)
- Asian HRC Steel Weekly Round-Up (new)
- Asia Freight Weekly Round-Up
- Australian Vessel Queues and Delays Weekly Round-Up

Steel Raw Materials Daily: Published at the close of day, our daily publication provides breaking news on the metallurgical coal, iron ore and ferrous scrap markets. Prices for metallurgical coal, iron ore, scrap and steel, including indices, freight rates and port throughputs. Coverage can include:

- Corporate news: Earnings results, mergers and acquisitions, company strategy
- Regulatory changes
- Key macroeconomic developments
- Mining sector: Transport, freight, mining and logistics
- Coal Trade: Global production, consumption, import/export analysis

McCloskey Steel Raw Materials Report: The weekly Friday publication captures developments of the previous week and provides additional daily breaking news and prices. Its focus on global metallurgical coal markets continues to expand to other steel raw materials such as metallurgical coke, iron ore and ferrous scrap.

McCloskey Daily Steel Raw Materials Prices: We continue to expand our coverage in metallurgical coal and other steel raw materials. Our pricing data is updated daily. Key price markers include:

- Metallurgical Coal
 - MCC1 Australian low-vol PHCC (FOB)
 - MCC2 Australian mid-vol PHCC (FOB)
 - MCC3 Australian second-tier HCC (FOB)
 - MCC4 China low-vol PHCC (CFR)
 - MCC5 China mid-vol PHCC (CFR)
 - MCC6 China second-tier HCC (CFR)
- Metallurgical Coke for key markets
 - Colombia (FOB)
 - Poland (ex-works)
- Iron Ore
 - 62% Fe fines (CFR)
 - 65% Fe fines (CFR)
- Ferrous Scrap/Rebar (weekly)
 - HMS 1/2 80:20 CFR Turkey, Shredded CFR Turkey, HMS 1/2 FOB Amsterdam (USD)
 - HMS 1/2 Steel Scrap Delivered Amsterdam Dock (EUR)
 - H2 Grade Scrap FOB Japan (JPY) + (USD)
 - Turkish Export and Domestic Steel Rebar (USD) + (TL)
- European Ferrous Scrap Supply Index (monthly)
 - Deep-sea scrap exporters in continental Europe, Scandinavia and the Baltics will be surveyed to provide an accurate overview of the contraction/expansion of scrap supply month-on-month. A new tool for the industry and an indicator for future seaborne scrap price direction.

Key Deliverables: Research

Metallurgical Coal Weekly Research Snapshot: Provides prices, news headlines, key market-driving statistics, and a summary of weekly developments.

Market Briefings: Provides short- and long-term proprietary forecasts and discussion of market drivers for each of the main steel and steel raw materials markets:

- Metallurgical Coal
- Iron Ore
- Ferrous Scrap
- Steel

Iron Ore Country Profiles: Each profile outlines what matters in iron ore in a given country, from mines and mine locations to infrastructure and the regulatory environment.

Steel Capacity Data: Features detailed crude steel capacity breakdown on a plant-by-plant basis for all key economies across the world, with parameters including parent company, production facility, type of ownership, location, operational status, and technology. Also provides the planned capacity expansion in the coming years. A subset of this database is a Green Steel Database that details Green Steel projects globally.

Coal Mining and Emissions Data: Mine production, emissions, ownership, type, and other information for all coal mines in countries that serve the global seaborne market.

Key Outlooks: Research

- Metallurgical Coal
- Iron ore
- Ferrous Scrap
- Steel

Fundamental Data

The service provides access to a series of global and regional markets datasets that allow clients to interrogate our research and data sources. Key Datasets include:
